ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 318(4), 336(2), 336(3) and 351(3) of BNS, 2023 in Crime No.9 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant is running V.V.Gold works by manufacturing gold jewels and gave it to retailers and the petitioner and her husband were introduced by one Rajesh to the defacto complainant and the defacto complainant gave jewels to the petitioner and her husband, who is running a business in the name and style of 'Sri Guhan Gold and Silvers' from the year 2023 and the petitioner's husband/A1 also introduced A3 to the defacto complainant and the defacto complainant also gave jewels to him. Thereafter, when the defacto complainant demanded a sum of Rs. 4,20,00,000/- for the 3590 grams of jewels received by the accused, the accused threatened him with dire consequences and then only, he came to know that they cheated him. Hence, the case.

3.This Court had earlier considered the anticipatory bail applications filed by the petitioner and dismissed them twice in Crl.O.P. (MD) Nos.2933 of 2026 and 7738 of 2026, vide orders dated 12.02.2026 and 30.04.2026, respectively.

4.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent and she was falsely implicated in this case and she has no way connected in the above said incident. He would further submit that this is the third anticipatory bail petition and the change in circumstances in the present petition is that the main accused/A1 has been released on bail. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. The learned Counsel for State of TN (Crl. Side) would submit that A1 in this case was only granted default bail and so far, no recovery has been effected. It is further submitted that the investigation in this case is still pending. Hence, he opposes to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

7.Considering the fact that the petitioner's bail application was twice dismissed by this Court and though the petitioner relies on the change in circumstance that A1 has been released on bail, the fact remains that A1 was released only on default bail, the investigation in this case is still pending, the property has not yet been recovered and therefore, there is no ground to revisit the earlier orders dismissing the petitioner's bail application, hence, this Court is not inclined to revisit the earlier orders.

8.Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition stands dismissed.
