JUDICIAL HEADNOTE & SUMMARY

Held custom barring entry of women aged 10-50 into Sabarimala temple unconstitutional, ruling religious freedom cannot override basic human dignity and gender equality.

RATIO DECIDENDI

The Court held that: Held custom barring entry of women aged 10-50 into Sabarimala temple unconstitutional, ruling religious freedom cannot override basic human dignity and gender equality. It was unequivocally established as binding law that statutory prerequisites and constitutional safeguards cannot be circumvented, and non-compliance invalidates the impugned proceedings.
